BROWNELL LIBRARY

Dear Friends;

“If you gotta have attitude, make it one of gratitude”. What a wise concept to remember and try to practice every day. Living in Little Compton makes this exercise easier, as we have so much to appreciate. Our town is a wonderful community, with so many diverse attributes. One of the treasures is The Brownell Library, a small gem in the center of town.

Our library has so very much to offer. If a book of your choice is not available, our wonderful librarians will obtain it for you, with delivery possible for those who are unable to make it to the library. If you are planning a car trip, or a restful day, audio books are a click away. If a movie is in your plan, the library has an extensive collection on hand. If an educational experience is on your calendar, you can choose from a myriad of museum passes. The internet is always at the ready, along with the ability to make copies and send faxes. Help is available for your computer problems, without making you feel foolish for problems with “those dastardly computers”! If you desire learning in a group atmosphere, knitting classes and book clubs welcome all. Special talks are planned throughout the year for adults and children alike. Children’s activities are abundant, as the importance of encouraging children’s love of reading and of the library itself is vital.

The library encourages thinking, and realizing there is more than one way to view a situation. Just because we don’t agree with someone does not mean we are right and they are wrong – especially in an election year. Facts can be checked, and knowledge can be expanded. Discussion is always a good thing. Our library is a warm gathering place or a time for solitude – your choice in this welcoming haven.

The Friends of the Brownell Library contribute so much to what is offered at the library. We are blessed to have generous members, both financially and supportive with their time. Whatever we ask, you have always responded kindly, and we are so very grateful and appreciative.

There are many organizations asking for your financial support, and we respectfully ask to be kept in your thoughts when you decide to contribute your hard earned money to a cause dear to your heart. Your contributions are kept in town, for the use of all, and we promise to spend your money wisely.

Thank you for being a Friend – we are blessed indeed.

With gratitude and appreciation,
